Property Tax Consulting Agreement

Tax Remedy, Inc., property tax consulting firm, agrees to represent Client in protesting the proposed tax appraisal of Client's properties.

This agreement includes representation of Client in formal protest of proposed property tax appraisals to the Appraisal district staff and/or the Appraisal Review Board, but does not include appeal to District Court nor any activity determined to be the practice of law.

This agreement pertains to Client's property identified on Exhibit "A" and to any other property(s) which Client may identify for inclusion in this consulting agreement.

Tax Remedy, Inc., will continue to represent Client each year until otherwise notified by Client.

Client agrees to pay to Tax Remedy, Inc., a contingent fee of Thirty Three & 1/3 percent (33.3%) of any actual tax savings resulting from tax consultant's protest of proposed property tax appraisal valuations. In the event no actual tax savings result from tax consultant's protest in any year, Client shall not be obligated to pay any fee to consultant for services rendered during that year. The fee, if any, is payable within 15 days of invoice.
